

THURSDAY COTTAGE

HANDMADE

Lime & Coconut Cheesecake

This velvety smooth cheesecake is simple to make and is a gorgeous way to use any of our creamy curds. The recipe works particularly well with the sharp and zesty tones of lime or lemon curd, but at other times, full-flavoured blackcurrant curds makes a delicious change. The coconut in the biscuit base can be replaced with a couple of teaspoons of powdered ginger or cardamom. The recipe is best made a day ahead.

Serves 8 - 10

For the base

- 200g plain sweet biscuits
- 75g butter, melted
- 1 tablespoon desiccated coconut

For the cake

- 1 x 310g jar Thursdays Cottage Lime Curd
- 500g Mascarpone cheese
- Zest and juice of 1 lime
- A little icing sugar, to finish

20cm loose bottomed deep cake tin, sides greased and base lined with baking parchment.

Preheat oven to 180C/Gas mark 4

To make the base crush the biscuits by placing them in a polythene bag and whacking them with a rolling pin. Place in a bowl and mix in the butter and the coconut. Press the mixture into the base of the prepared tin. Bake in the oven for 15 minutes then remove and set aside.

Blend together the lime curd, mascarpone cheese, lime zest and juice until well combined. Pour over the biscuit base smoothing the surface with the back of a spoon. Place in the fridge and chill for 6 to 24 hours to firm up - the longer the better.

When ready to serve, remove from the tin and dust with icing sugar.
